‘Spirit of Hinton’ honors bestowed on local florist

HINTON, WV (Hinton News) – Hinton Mayor Jack Scott says he could think of no one more worthy or deserving of this year’s Spirit of Hinton honor than lifelong resident and longtime florist Donna Mock Pivont.

“Donna has spent her entire life supporting our community, and it’s our honor and privilege to recognize her as our 2022 Christmas Parade Spirit of Hinton honoree and at a city reception with the Christmas King and Queen.” The City of Hinton’s Christmas Parade will be held on December 3 at 6:00 p.m. during the city’s Hometown Christmas Festival.

Donna has been married to her husband Ray Pivont, long-term Hinton Fire Chief and owner of Pivont Funeral Home, for 55 years. In 1971 Ray handed his wife the key to a floral shop as a gift. Their son, just a baby at the time, recalls the story of how his mother, knowing nothing of the floral business or floral design, made it her mission to learn about and devote her professional life to creating beautiful flower arrangements for funerals, weddings and nearly every kind of life event or occasion under the sun. Lee and his sister, Autumn, grew up in the Hinton Floral Shop, learning from their mother, and equally dedicated father, to work hard, be involved in the community, and serve as role models to their children and 7 grandchildren. Lee says his daughters grew up in Hinton, (Evan, Avery, Gavin and Sullivan), are very much like their grandmother, Gigi, as independent and self-assured young women, according and have excelled in Lady Bobcat Basketball and volleyball. Lee says Gigi has never missed a home or away ballgame and that her dedication to family is foremost. Yet, Lee also says his mother has also always been steadfastly committed to her community and her patrons.

“Mom has only been late to a game once or twice as she was wrapping up a floral arrangement. She’s never let anyone down in all the years she has been in business.” He also credits his mother for being an outstanding role model for his sister, niece, and grandson in North Carolina. The grandchildren range in age from 18 to 27.

Through sports, pageants, graduations and the eldest’s weddings, Gigi has served as floral designer, as she has for others in the community over the past 5 decades.

After half a century, Donna sold her floral shop to a long-time employee last year, Michele Rollyson, yet continues to design arrangements while she also bakes hams for Pivont Funeral Homes’ dinners, volunteers, devotes her life to service, and civic involvement, caring for her own mother Margie, belongs to First Baptist Church of Hinton, Service Club, Wednesday Club and serves on the Board of Hospice of Southern West Virginia. Rollyson, who has worked with Donna Pivont since she was in 7th grade, says her mentor has the biggest heart.

“She is one very special lady,” says Rollyson, “a gift to our community and I have learned from the best. It is wonderful to see her recognized with this honor by the City of Hinton.”

“I love Hinton and I am both shocked and very honored to be named the 2022 Spirit of Hinton,” Donna Pivont shared after learning that she had been se-

Temporary bridge completed on Route 20

BY REBECCA STALNAKER

Over the weekend, West Virginia Department of Highways crews constructed a bridge near the culvert collapse on Route 20. Work began at 7 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 18, requiring the road to shut down. The intention was to have the road back open at 7 a.m. Monday; however, the crews worked tirelessly and were able to open the area shortly after 3 p.m. on Sunday.

The bridge is a temporary solution to keep the path safe until crews can complete a more permanent repair. Concerns abounded in the community regarding the safety of the road after heavy rain caused the hole to expand.

When the hole first opened in June, it measured approximately six feet wide and 30 feet deep. The 90-year-old drain began to fail, which ultimately led to the collapse.

DOH crews installed a 120-foot temporary culvert and fill material under the road to stabilize the situation. Unfortunately, rain from Hurricane Nicole caused the fill material to wash out, and the collapse expanded under the building and across a large portion of the road. According to Pack, P.E., WVDOH Chief Engineer of District Operations, further repairs were delayed due to toxic levels of lead at the site.

Many parents were concerned due to Route 20 being the path to Summers County Comprehensive High School, which instructs grades six through 12. Additionally, several young students travel that road to the elementary school.

According to a statement from WVDOH, bridge construction crews came from the Central Office in Charleston, Districts 9 and 10. The bridge spans 125 feet. This length covers the existing hole and provides a buffer for potential expansion. Pack said WVDOH intends to complete plans for a 300-foot drainage system to be installed under the area. He further stated that they plan to put a contract out to bid by the end of the year.

Hinton News will continue to provide updates on the long-term project.

New River CTC MLT program accepting applications

BEAVER, W.Va. (Hinton News) - New River Community and Technical College is accepting applications for fall 2023 for the Medical Laboratory Technician (MLT) program offered at the Raleigh County Campus in Beaver.

Laboratory professionals perform phlebotomy and analyze tissues, blood and body fluids. New River CTC's MLT program prepares graduates for technician-level positions in clinical laboratory environments in hospitals, physician's offices, commercial laboratories, biotechnology, research laboratories, pharmaceutical companies and veterinary laboratories.

"There is a critical shortage of trained and certified laboratory professionals nationwide, and our regional partners have available positions in the field. By offering this program, we're able to help students train for an in-demand career and connect employers in our communities with qualified applicants," explained Dean of Transfer and Pre-Professional Programs Dr. Wendy Patriquin.

New River CTC's MLT program is a selective admission program, meaning that students must apply to and be accepted into the program before enrolling in program coursework. Prerequisite courses include chemistry, anatomy and physiology and college algebra.

For more information about the MLT program, contact MLT Program Director Morgan Hamby at mhamby@newriver.edu.

Visit www.newriver.edu, email admissions@newriver.edu or call 866-349-3739 for information about admission to New River CTC or other degree programs.

Treasurer Moore announces $1.1M worth of unclaimed property returned in October

CHARLESTON, (Hinton News) - State Treasurer Riley Moore has announced his office's Unclaimed Property Division returned $1.1 million worth of funds to individuals, businesses and other organizations during the month of October, continuing a strong trend of returns.

"We have been continuing our tireless efforts to raise awareness of this program and reconnect people with their lost money, and these continued strong returns show those efforts are working," Moore said.

The office's Unclaimed Property Division paid out 1,670 claims totaling $1,126,942 during the month of October.

"In September, when we launched the West Virginia Cash Now program, we had our highest amount of returns ever, and this month we've kept that momentum going," Moore said. "With inflation still running high, and Christmas right around the corner, people need every dollar they can get these days. That's why we encourage everyone to visit our website, www.wvtreasury.com, to search to see if we're holding any unclaimed funds in their name."

Moore's office has been returning record-breaking amounts of unclaimed funds in recent months. The office returned $18.6 million during the fiscal year that ended

June 30, he highest yearly total in state history. September's $5.3 million in returns, boosted by the launch of the Cash Now program, was the highest monthly total in state history.

Moore said his office has more than $300 million in unclaimed property listings for individuals, businesses and other organizations. He encourages everyone to visit www.wvtreasury.com today to search and see if they have funds to claim.

ROYAL STARS HOROSCOPE

BY GEORGIA NICOLS

MOON ALERT: There are no restrictions to shopping or important decisions today. The Moon is in Pisces.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Wednesday, Nov. 30, 2022:

You are clever, humorous and able to entertain others with wit and originality. You are diligent, polite and cooperative once you know what is expected of you. This year is slower-paced. Take time to rejuvenate yourself. Focus on the relationships that are most important to you. Accept help from others.

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
3★ Make no promises to anyone today, because at a deeper level, you are unsure of where your commitment lies, even if you are not consciously aware of this. Nevertheless, you might be physically attracted to someone today. This attraction might be temporary and unreliable. Tonight: Be reasonable.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
3★ Impulse shopping is likely today. (Of course, you love beautiful things, quality items and antiques.) Today you might buy something because you can't resist it. Meanwhile, a competition or challenge with a friend or a member of a group might arise. Tonight: Stay cool.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
3★ Flirtations and physical attractions to others might occur today. Nevertheless, this planetary influence is not sufficient to guarantee a sustained relationship. This is more of a flash-in-the-pan thing. Meanwhile, back in the boardroom, conflict with bosses, parents and authority figures are likely. Tonight: Stay chill.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
4★ Don't get worked up about political arguments or issues related to travel, higher education, medicine and the law, because this will exhaust you, and probably lead nowhere. Meanwhile, a surprise flirtation might be exciting. (Ah, the thrill of secret passions!) Tonight: Seek peace.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
3★ Parents must be patient with their kids today, because they might have different ideas about what they want to do as opposed to your ideas. (This goes with the territory.) Likewise, a dispute with a friend about where to have lunch or what to do might occur. Be cooperative. Tonight: Be nice.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
2★ You might find yourself irresistibly attracted to someone in a uniform today or someone in a position of power. Meanwhile, you might have a power struggle with a friend, spouse or partner. Possibly this quarrel might be triggered by jealous feelings. Tonight: Get the facts.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
3★ You are an excellent debater. (One of the reasons so many Librans are in the legal profession.) Today you feel passionately about something. Admittedly, you also might be attracted to someone you meet. (Be still my beating heart.) Avoid work disputes, which might occur. Tonight: Be scrutinizing.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)
3★ If financial disputes arise today, be patient. Also guard against a fast, passionate response to how you handle your money (or spend it) today. Act in such a way that you will have no regrets tomorrow. Something might lead to a romantic quarrel. Competition or jealousy might be a factor. Tonight: Cooperate.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
3★ This is a classic day for a passionate attraction to someone. (Eyes across a crowded room and all that.) This could be an exciting encounter, but very likely a temporary one. Meanwhile, do your best to keep the peace at home, because that makes life easier. Tonight: Cocoon.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan 19)
3★ A hidden romance or a secret attraction might trigger an argument with someone today -- perhaps a jealous response by someone else. This could involve a work-related flirtation. Capricorns tend to compartmentalize their lives. Work colleagues rarely meet your family. Tonight: A needed conversation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
3★ Today a friend might become a lover. Certainly, many of you will feel a physical attraction to a friend or a member of a group. Meanwhile, avoid money disputes or power struggles about cash flow or something that you own. Don't do anything you will regret later. Tonight: Be friendly.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
3★ Intense feelings with authority figures will exist today, and for many of you, these feelings will be a physical attraction or an exciting flirtation. At the same time, you might feel competitive or even jealous of someone in power or someone famous. Remember: At the end of the game, the king and the pawn go back in the same box. Tonight: Forgiveness.
