

First Christian Church in Hinton celebrates 100th anniversary

Lisa Abshire

HINTON W.Va. (Hinton News) - The First Christian Church of Hinton is preparing to celebrate a milestone anniversary. On Oct. 13, 1923, the cornerstone was laid to begin construction at the site of the current church on 7th Avenue and Temple Street. Townspeople, along with the congregation, gathered for the initial event.

First Christian Church was organized in 1895 by Minister W.W. Smith. The congregation had previously bought a lot on the south side of Ballengee Street between 4th and 5th Avenue and built a meeting house. The building quickly became too small making a new building necessary. The trustees announced on April 11, 1922, that a corner lot had been purchased from Susan H. Tyler on 7th Avenue and Temple Street. Plans were drawn up, and Martin Brothers Contractors were hired to construct the new building.

The old building on the lot had to first be torn down, and then the work of excavating for the church building began on Oct. 7, 1922.

On June 13, 1923, a campaign was started to raise $10,000 to carry forward the work of the new church. By the time the cornerstone was laid, $19,000 was raised to finance the $40,000 church building. On that Saturday, Oct. 13, 1923, people gathered to lay the cornerstone of the building. The late Augusta Johnson Ratliff was on record as having recalled the event at which she played the organ from the bed of a truck. The basement of the church was completed on March 16, 1924, and the church began meeting there. On Sunday, Feb. 21, 1926, the main auditorium was complete and open, with three services held there. During the 50s, First Christian Church struggled as times changed, and jobs were harder to find. As some families had to leave, others were added, keeping the balance. Despite the hardships faced throughout the years, the church has preserved. The church maintained the same pastor from 1992–

2022. Unfortunately, on Sept. 22, 2022, Gary Adkins passed away, and the church is currently seeking a full-time minister. A celebration will be held on Oct. 15, 2023, to mark the 100th anniversary.

Services begin at 9:30 a.m. and last throughout the day. In attendance will be previous ministers. Services will include special singing, and lunch will follow the service.

Ziplining through fall colors at Pipestem

PIPESTEM, W.Va. (Hinton News) – Late September through the end of October is the perfect time to experience peak fall colors in West Virginia. The best way to experience the fall foliage -- better than a scenic drive or a hike in the mountains -- is a zipline tour at Pipestem State Park.

Pipestem Adventures offers the state's premier ziplining experience with Pipestem Peaks Zipline Tours. This impressively extensive and high-flying zipline in southern West Virginia is an adventurer's dream -- especially in the fall when the weather is cooler and the leaves have changed colors. Imagine flying high at 300 feet above the Bluestone Gorge River at speeds up to 50 MPH as you zipline through the treetops at Pipestem.

The State of West Virginia recently released its Fall Foliage map, which forecasts the changing leaf coloring across the state.

As the forests explode with rich colors of red, orange and yellow, West Virginia's beautiful vistas also provide the perfect opportunity for photography. The platforms along the zipline route are the ideal locations to capture iconic photos of West Virginia in the fall.

The zipline at Pipestem remains open until October 29th, and Pipestem Adventures is offering a special discount for Fall zipliners. When making reservations online or by phone, use the code ZIP15 to receive a 15% discount until the end of the season. The zipline is open daily, with the exceptions of Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Learn more about Pipestem Peaks Zipline Tours at www.pipestemadventures.com. Zipline tours require advance reservations, which can be booked by calling 1-833-WV-Parks (1-833-987-2757) or visiting wvstateparks.com.

ROYAL STARS HOROSCOPE

BY GEORGIA NICOLS

MOON ALERT: There are no restrictions to shopping or important decisions today. The Moon is in Virgo.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Wednesday, Oct. 11, 2023:

You like to socialize. You're easygoing, friendly and well-liked. You are also ambitious. This is a year full of opportunities for you because it's the beginning of a new nine-year cycle, which means you can explore new avenues and open any door. Be courageous!

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult

ARIES (March 21-April 19)
3★ This is a productive

day. Others will be helpful, especially co-workers and colleagues. Work-related travel is likely for many of you. Nevertheless, no matter what you do, this is a happy day, because people will be generous and warm to each other. (It makes a huge difference!) Tonight: Check your finances.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
4★ This is the perfect day to meet friends for a long, enjoyable lunch or hang out with the gang at happy hour. Sports events and fun activities with kids will appeal to you. This is also a warm, fun-loving, romantic day -- a great date night! Tonight: Patience.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
4★ Invite family and friends to your home today. This is an excellent day to entertain. You also might have ambitious ideas related to redecorating or making your place look more attractive. Likewise, be open to exploring real-estate opportunities. Tonight: Work.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)
4★ Enjoy schmoozing with neighbors, siblings and relatives today. You're in an upbeat mood. You have big ideas. You feel hopeful and optimistic about something. People will listen to you because Venus is in your House of Communications, sweetening your words.

Tonight: Play!
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
4★ Business and finance are favored today. Keep your eyes open. If you're clever, you can boost your income today. You also have ambitious plans for the future, which could have a favorable impact on your assets. If shopping, you might spend big because you feel flush. Tonight: Get organized.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
5★ This is a strong day, because the Moon is in your sign, dancing beautifully with lucky Jupiter, making this a great day to make travel plans, or in fact, to get out of town if you can. You will enjoy studying and learning something new. Legal and medical matters are favored. Talk to people. Tonight: You're persuasive.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
3★ This is a powerful time for you, because both the Sun and Mercury are in your sign. Nevertheless, today you're happy to be low-key. You might prefer to work alone or behind the scenes. Most especially, you would like to be private in a luxurious way. "Bring it on!" Tonight: Maintain your possessions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)
4★ Discussions with friends and members of groups will be positive today, mainly because you feel optimistic and upbeat. Since you feel so hopeful about your future, this is an excellent day to modify or change your goals for the future. When you expect the best, you often get it! Tonight: You're strong.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
4★ You're high-viz today, which is good news, because you look attractive to others. You'll be able to talk your way into or out of anything. You might have exciting ideas that you want to introduce. If so, others will listen. Make your pitch! Tonight: Privacy.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
4★ Do what you can to break free from your daily routine today. You want adventure! If you can travel, then do so. At least go someplace you've never been before today, even if it's just for coffee or lunch. Check out a new neighborhood. Visit a new store. Talk to people. Tonight: Lead the way.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
4★ This is an excellent day for important discussions about wills, inheritances, shared property and how to divide or share something. All parties will be satisfied; however, you in particular will come out with a big smile on your face. It's a good day to ask for a loan or a mortgage. Tonight: You're ambitious.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
4★ Enjoy schmoozing with others today -- friends, partners and even members of the general public -- because you're happy to see people. You feel warm and friendly to others, and they will respond in kind. You might enjoy philosophical or religious discussion with someone. Tonight: Explore!

BORN TODAY

HINTON W.Va. (Hinton News) – A big celebration is about to get underway in Hinton, West Virginia, as the town celebrates its 150th birthday during this year’s Railroad Days festival Oct. 13-15. Hinton is rich in history, with the railroad playing a large part in the story, but you don’t need to be a railroad enthusiast to have fun at this festival, where the streets come alive with visitors, vendors, and residents.

Said Mayor Jack Scott, “This year’s event is shaping up to be our best and biggest, taking up nearly all of Hinton’s historic downtown. We have something for everyone—three days of music on two different stages, a car show, fireworks, a kid zone with face painting and inflatables, and vendors selling a large variety of items.”

There’s even something for the history buffs, with all three of the town’s museums—the Railroad Museum, the Campbell-Flannagan-Murrell House, and the Veterans Museum—open for tours.

Foodies can sample offerings from more than a dozen food trucks and groups, and there will also be a beer garden.

Over 100 artisans and craftspeople will have booths selling homemade jewelry, clothing, soaps, decor, foods, quilts, and more. This is the perfect opportunity to get a start on holiday shopping with gifts that are personal and creative, while helping support local creators as well.

Animal lovers can cast their vote for the hotly sought-after title of Prettiest Pet. With over 40 contestants, the competition should be fierce.

Even getting to Hinton can be part of the fun now that the leaves are changing colors and the drive is so pretty. Hinton is less than an hour from Lewisburg, 1 ½ hours from Charleston, or 2 1/2 hours from Huntington. If you prefer to ride the rails, Amtrak’s Cardinal Line has Friday and Sunday service in Hinton, arriving at 11 AM and departing at 6:06 PM.

Parking will be available at a variety of lots, including First Baptist Church, under the Technology Center, Life-line Church, Summers County High School, and Beech Run Road (where the Sweet Rose Motel used to be), with free shuttles available to transport guests around town. It’s all happening in Hinton, where the rivers converge, and the New River Gorge National Park begins.

Celebrate 150 years of railroad history with community, food, music, and fun. This is a party you won’t want to miss. For more information, call Hinton City Hall at 304-466-3255.

A Peek into Summers County’s Past: Early photo of Marie Store

Rebecca Stalnaker and William Jones

MARIE W.Va. (Hinton News) - It is time for another edition of a Peek into Summers County’s Past. Every week, local history collector William Jones discusses items from his collection and their historical significance. In this edition, Jones is talking about a store in the Marie area.

Jones began by saying, “This week’s story has an interesting twist to it. The store seen in this early photograph still stands in Marie, West Virginia. This photo was recently mailed to me by retired Kanawha County Magistrate Judge Tim Halloran. He is a direct relative of the Halloran family. Mr. Halloran had seen my piece about dairies in Summers County and contacted my friend and editor of The Hinton News, Rebecca Stalnaker, to find a way of contacting me.”

“He called me in May of this year; we had a lovely chat and intend to meet one day. He told me about his family’s connections to Summers County and the Halloran’s Dairy. He called me a second time a month or so ago to ask for my address, he had some things he wanted to mail me. One thing was a 1907 or 08 class photo of Hinton High School. The other was this great early photo of the store in Marie, West Virginia.

“I am not sure of the exact date of this photo, but since the store was built in 1898 and its subject matter, it must be from the first part of the 1900s. It is more than likely one of, if not the oldest photos in existence of this structure in Summers County. The store itself has a home that was built onto the right of it during the same period. That was a common practice of ‘storekeepers’ of the time who were in operation in a relatively secluded area like Marie to add living quarters onto their store building.

“In doing research for this article I found this quote that explains who owned the store in its early days in the West Virginia Archives. The following is a quote taken from the History of Marie Community prepared by W.T. Maddy in 1925 ‘The first store at Marie was owned by Robert Miller. A room in W.A. Goode’s home was used, and in 1898, Mr. Miller sold to Young and Company and they erected the store building that is being used now. Later, the style of the firm was changed to W.A. Barger and Company, then to C.N. Vass and Son, then to McNeer Brothers and then to E.J. Vass, the present owner who has been clerk or owner for 25 years.’

“Little is known of the history of this store other than what I just described until the time my father was working for David and Judy Osborne’s construction company. They had bought the old store building and built their home to the right of the store with intentions of restoring it to open an antique store complete with early items like candy displays, antique store scales and everything you could find in between the two. He also carried the basic staples so if you lived in the area you could just run to the Marie Mercantile to grab your basic needs.

“Like I said, my father was one of their contractors and would work on restoring the store building in between jobs. The Marie Mercantile opened sometime in the early 2000s. When the Osbournes closed it they had what has to be my all-time favorite event in 2002. An onsite outdoor auction under a tent. Sitting outside and drinking coffee while holding my bid card in the air to try to win the next piece to add to my collection has always been my favorite way of spending a cool fall morning.

“It was at this sale that I purchased the antique brown liquor bottle from the West Virginia Liquor Company from Hinton that was featured as one of the bottles in my March 27 article. My grandfather also purchased the photo of the dairy truck that he had driven when he used to drive the delivery truck for Halloran’s Dairy, which I used in my Aug. 15 article. Most everything in history can be connected in some fashion or another. The same is true with this piece. Mr. Halloran tracked me down because of the piece I had written about the dairies in Summers County. My grandfather had purchased the photo of the Halloran Delivery truck from an auction that was associated with this building.

“Shortly thereafter a man by the name of Chuck Johnson and his mother Emma Jean from Maryland purchased the property. They further restored the structure and they too opened an antique store that was almost a museum of sorts called Emma Jean’s General Store. It was like walking back into a store from the 1890s and Emma Jean, who has since passed away, was quite the people person. That added an extra element of charm to this already unique store. It was sometime around 2009 or 2010 I recall going with my grandfather to a little fall festival with him at the store. We took his 1931 Model A sedan that he had just brought from his house in Charleston. We took it out that day with my mother for one last hurrah before he sold it.”

In conclusion, Jones stated, “In keeping with the tradition of the previous two stores during the past nearly three decades, Roger Hicks, who had Old School Antiques in Forest Hill, West Virginia started renting this building from Mr.

Johnson a few years ago. Roger says he is ‘retired’ from dealing in antiques but still ‘piddles’ in the trade. He and his son Amos also ‘tinkers’ in the production of custom-made furniture as they had done in their previous business. Since its establishment 125 years ago this building has served the Marie community as a store in some fashion or another. Be it a general store supplying the locals with their everyday needs without having to go into town to Hinton. Or an antique store that resembles what a general store looked like back in the day. To now being the staging area for occasionally selling antiques and the showroom of sorts for the custom furniture that is being produced in Marie, West Virginia.”

This brings us to the end of another edition of A Peek into Summers County’s Past. Did you know about all of this information?

LEGAL NOTICE

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

The undersigned Substitute Trustee, by virtue of the authority vested in him by that certain Deed of Trust, dated October 27, 2006, and duly recorded in the Office of the Clerk of the County Commission of Summers County, West Virginia, in Document No. 132046, in Book No. 228, at Page 153, Martha L Dodd did convey unto Tommy J Dixon, Trustee(s), certain real property described in said Deed of Trust; and the beneficiary has elected to appoint Seneca Trustees, Inc., as Substitute Trustee; and default having been made under the aforementioned Deed of Trust, and the undersigned Substitute Trustee having been instructed by U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, NOT IN ITS INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY, BUT SOLELY AS INDENTURE TRUSTEE FOR LEGACY MORTGAGE ASSET TRUST 2021-GS4 to foreclose thereunder, will offer for sale at public auction at the front door of the Summers County Courthouse in Hinton, West Virginia, on November 6, 2023

at 10:00 AM

the following described real estate, together with its improvements, easements and appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate in 05 - Jumping Branch District, Summers County, West Virginia, and more particularly described as follows:

All that certain property situated in the District of Jumping Branch, County of Summers and State of West Virginia, containing 3 acres, more or less, being more fully described in a Deed Volume 208 and page 397, Map #6 and Parcel #s 8.1 and 12.

Tax Map or Parcel ID No.: 6-8.1, Tax Map or Parcel ID No.: 6-12

At the time of the execution of the Deed of Trust, this property was reported to have an address of: HC 80, Hinton, WV 25951.

The referenced real estate will be conveyed with no covenants of warranty, and subject to all covenants, restrictions, easements, rights of way and reservations which may be a matter of record in the aforesaid Clerk's Office or visible upon the ground, all prior liens and encumbrances, including, without limitation, liens for real estate taxes, incinerator, sanitary and sewer charges. The purchasers at the sale shall be responsible for paying the recording costs and also the tax on the privilege of transferring real property (the cost of the tax stamp to be affixed to the deed). The purchasers shall be responsible for payment of all real estate taxes.

The subject property will be sold in "AS IS" condition. The Substitute Trustee shall be under no duty to cause any existing tenant or person occupying the subject property to vacate said property.

TERMS: $4,000.00 in cash and/or certified funds as deposit at the time of sale with the balance due and payable within 30 days of the day of sale.

FEDERAL TAX LIEN: In the event that there are Federal Tax Liens against the property, the United States would have the right to redeem the property within a period of 120 days from the date of such sale or the period allowable for redemption under local law, whichever is longer.

Pursuant to the Deed of Trust, the Trustee may postpone the sale by public announcement at the time and place designated or by posting a notice of the same, and act by agent in the execution of the sale. The parties secured by the Deed of Trust reserve the right to purchase the property at such sale.

Fall Events at the Seneca Rocks Discovery Center

SENECA ROCKS W.Va. (Hinton News)– The Seneca Rocks Discovery Center, in cooperation with the Eastern National Forests Interpretive Association, is pleased to announce the fall programming schedule. The center is open Thursday through Monday from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and closed Tuesday and Wednesday. All programs meet at the Discovery Center until otherwise noted.

Daily Programs:
• Junior Ranger Station – Stop in between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. for a variety of programs for children.
• The Sites Homestead – Open daily for tours from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Saturdays and Sundays:
• Beginner Birding Hike – 10 a.m., discover the basics of birding as you go for a morning stroll. Binoculars provided.
• Discover the Forest Guided Hikes – 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Get better acquainted with the national forest while hiking along the ¾-mile Watershed Discovery Loop.

• Ranger Talks – 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Dig deeper into the history and science behind the scenery at the Discovery Center.

Select Weekends:
• Artisan Exhibits – Visitors may purchase handmade originals and watch visiting artisans demonstrate their craft. For a complete schedule of artisans, or to become a visiting artisan yourself, contact alison.bailey@usda.gov.

Special Events:
• Sept. 30, Military History Weekend. Learn about the military history of the area from the Revolutionary War and WWII to today. A display of original uniforms will be featured at the Sites Homestead from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
• Oct. 7, Local Author Reading. Listen to selections from David

Umling’s fiction and non-fiction works at the Sites Homestead from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.
• Oct. 21, Rock-tober. Enjoy rock games, rock crafts and rock talks at our celebration of all things geology. Enjoy a special evening program with Dr. Joseph Lebold, one of the authors of “Roadside Geology of West Virginia,” at 7:30 p.m.
• Oct. 28, Bat Carnival & Farewell Party. Try your luck at the bat-themed games in honor of International Bat Week. At the Sites Homestead, visit with costumed interpreter, Cathy Milton, as she brings the story of Dorothy Sites to a close with her “Farewell Party.”

Seneca Rocks Discovery Center and Sites Homestead will close for the season on Sunday, Oct. 29, at the end of the day. All programs are subject to cancellation or change. For more information call 304-567-2827 or email alison.bailey@usda.gov.

Last week we ended up looking at why David’s throne and God’s throne are one and the same. We will finish that topic this week.

Christ On David’s Throne

(Part 4)

by David Padfield

What Will David's Throne Do For Him? (continued)

We also read of how “Solomon sat on the throne of the Lord as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him” (1 Chron. 29:23). Solomon himself said, “Now therefore, as the Lord lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as He promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today!” (1 Kings 2:24). Solomon also said, “So the Lord has fulfilled His word which He spoke; and I have filled the position of my father David, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised; and I have built a house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.” (1 Kings 8:20).

When we put these passages together, we see how Solomon sat on “the throne of David,” “the throne of the Lord,” “the throne of Israel, ” and “the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel” all at the same time.

Christ On His Throne

The prophet Zechariah prophesied about the reign of Christ, and said, “He shall build the temple of the Lord. He shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on His throne; so He shall be a priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.” (Zech. 6:13).

Christ was to do three things on His throne: 1) He would sit on His throne, 2) He would be a priest on His throne, and 3) He would rule on His throne. If we put this into the form of a syllogism, we would say: 1) He would rule on His throne while priest, 2) according to Hebrews 8:1, He is a priest on His throne now, and 3) therefore, He is ruling on His throne now.

Notice another syllogism: 1) He is a priest on His throne (Zech. 6:13), 2) He is a priest in heaven (Heb. 4:14), and 3) therefore, His throne is in heaven!

One last syllogism for your consideration: 1) He could not be a priest if He were on earth (Heb. 8:4), 2) however, He is a priest on His throne (Zech. 6:13), 3) therefore, His throne cannot be on earth!

Christ And Coniah

Jeremiah had condemned king Coniah as a “despised, broken idol” (Jer. 22:24-30). Coniah (also called Jeconiah) was to be cast out of the land and brought into captivity. We are further informed that he was a “man who shall not prosper in his days; for none of his descendants shall prosper, sitting on the throne of David, and ruling anymore in Judah” (Jer. 22:30). Notice this carefully: Coniah would never have a descendent of his sitting on the throne of David and ruling in Judah.

We need to notice the genealogy of this man. Jehoikim begot Coniah (1 Chron. 3:16; Jer. 22:24). Coniah (Jeconiah) begot Shealtiel (1 Chron. 3:17; Matt. 1:12). Christ is a descendant of Shealtiel (Matt. 1:12).

Therefore, since Christ is a descendant of Coniah, He cannot sit on the throne of David and rule in Judah! Yet, this is the very heart of modern premillennialism! The truth is that Christ is on the throne of David—but not in the land of Judah. He is on the throne of David in heaven where He must reign “till He has put all enemies under His feet” (1 Cor. 15:25).

Conclusion

When Our Lord returns it will not be for the purpose of establishing a kingdom—He is at this very moment the King of kings and Lord of Lords (Rev. 17:14). He rules as sovereign King in His kingdom right now. When He returns He will deliver “the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power” (1 Cor. 15:24).

Memories of the Past: Mom’s October Song

My Mom’s October Song began one day in September when we heard the words nobody ever wants to hear. When the cancer doctor put a comforting hand on her knee and said, you have three months left. Six if you’re fortunate. My mother didn’t have a month, but we didn’t know that then. I remember trying not to fall apart when my world was silently imploding. I had to be strong for her because I could see the shock and fear in her eyes, in the eyes of the woman who had been my strength every time my world had fallen apart. Now, it was my turn.

We made it back to the car, and my daughter and Aunt Ruth knew something was wrong by the expressions on our faces. I called a few people to let them know what we found out. We waited until we got home to tell Dad. My strong and stoic Dad falling in tears was more than I could handle. My Mom’s tears alone were enough to break even my stony heart. I was torn apart by grief, but I was determined to stay strong for all my family.

One beautiful day, my Mom asked to go to Sandstone Falls on a picnic. The good Lord must have known because the day before, I had bought a bunch of premade sandwiches and salads. We piled into the car, and off we went. My Mom smiled so big, and we all had the best time. Little did we know it was to be the last family outing we would have. Mom began rapidly going downhill and spent more time in the hospital and asleep than able to enjoy anything.

One good day, Mom had asked to watch one last movie with me: “The Christmas Shoes.” To this day, I can’t watch that movie without breaking down. I believe with my whole heart that she was trying to prepare me for her passing with that movie, as its theme was similar. In my mind’s eye, I can still see silent tears falling from my Mom’s eyes as we watched the movie.

On Oct. 9, my Mom suffered a major stroke that left her on a ventilator. After testing determined she was brain dead, the decision was made to let her go. I remember, on the trip to the hospital, thinking about how beautiful the foliage was. The Twin Lakes looked like a scene from a Canadian postcard. It seemed at odds with the fact I was losing one of the most important people in my life.

Mom passed away on October 11. At the hospital, they brought out a hospitality cart. It always struck me as strange that you only get the royal treatment when a loved one passes away. The trip home felt surreal. In a way, life has ever since. Mom was laid to rest on Oct. 14, 2014. Her October Song was complete.

Capito announces congressionally directed spending award for Weirton water treatment upgrades

WASHINGTON, D.C. (Hinton News) — U.S. Senator Shelley Moore Capito (R-W. Va.), Ranking Member of the Senate Environment and Public Works (EPW) Committee and a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, announced funding from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to the City of Weirton, W.Va., for their water treatment capacity project. This award was secured through a Congressionally Directed Spending

(CDS) request made by Senator Capito. “The economic development taking place in Weirton is creating jobs and growing the economy. I have seen this growth firsthand and I am thrilled to see the critical resources I advocated for reach the city,” Ranking Member Capito said. “This funding will double the city’s water system treatment capacity, allowing expansion of services for residents and current and future redevelopment. I will continue supporting investments like this — which have a direct benefit for West Virginia — through my role on the Senate Appropriations Committee.” “The City of Weirton wishes to express its sincere gratitude to Senator Capito for her diligent efforts in securing funding which makes it possible to double our water plant capacity. With this important infrastructure improvement Weirton now has great opportunities for future growth,” A.D. “Butch” Mastrantoni, Weirton Utilities Director, said.

Individual award details listed below:

- $22,470,000 EPA CDS award to the City of Weirton, W.Va. to increase the city’s water system treatment capacity from 4 million gallons per day (MGD) to 8 MGD to allow for growth and economic development.
